Gentlemen:

In my SEP-IRA I sell "cash covered" PUTS and "stock owned" COVERED CALLS. E.g., I do not use any margin and I only do this with world dominator companies to be totally safe. This enables me in a time of zero interest rates and a crazily gyrating stock market to make a consistent 10% to 15% profit throughout the year. I urge you not to change the rules so as to disable me from using my IRA in this manner.

Respectfully submitted,

Don Seyfert
